Dear Parents and Guardians,

BOOK WEEK CURRENTLY ON

All parents and guardians are aware of our Book Week Celebrations. The events were detailed in the last Landing Post and our children, thanks to your support have been enthusiastic and involved. One of the highlights of the Week is our “dress up” Assembly. We are looking forward to enjoying the colour and joy this brings to our school. Thank you again for ensuring that your children were dressed as their favourite character.

Scholastic Book Fair 2019

Well we have had another very successful Book Fair this year thanks to the amazing generosity of the Anne Hamersley Primary School families and staff. Not only have we achieved great sales results, but we have had so many wonderful book donations for our teachers and classrooms.

We were also very lucky to have the assistance of our very dedicated P&C. It is a very busy time of the year for the P&C and Mrs White would like to take this opportunity to thank them for attending and assisting with sales every morning and afternoon.

Proceeds that the school receive from the sales will go towards increasing reading resources and rewards for our school.

We look forward to another successful Book Fair in 2020.

REMINDER: EARLY CLOSE EVERY WEDNESDAY AT 2.30PM

Parent Traps

By Professor Matt Sanders

It's tough being a parent but it's easy to fall into one of the common parenting traps.

The criticism trap is when there are frequent power struggles with your child. The situations escalate from criticising to threatening and yelling. This type of discipline often backfires. The parent's anger makes the child and parent resentful and hostile. If these kinds of battles take place frequently, it's time to try a new way of handling the situation.

The "leave them alone" trap involves the parent simply not acknowledging their child when they are behaving well. If good behaviour is taken for granted it may be replaced with the misbehaviour that receives more attention. A basic principle of positive parenting is to praise behaviours you would like to see more often.

The "for the sake of the children" trap occurs when parents in unhappy marriages stick doggedly to the same marriage routines, for the sake of the children, rather than addressing the problems constructively.

The perfect parent trap. There is no such thing as a perfect parent and trying to be one will only lead to disappointment, resentment, guilt, and feelings of inadequacy.

The martyr trap is one where parents become so over-involved in the task of parenting they neglect their own needs. The parents' relationship suffers and may end in feelings of dissatisfaction and resentment. Quality parenting can only happen when adults have their own lives in balance.
